□ Quick Facts

- ▶ Best for: First-time visitors wanting a balanced NJ experience
- ▶ Pace: Moderate — one main activity per half-day, flexible
- ▶ Transport: NJ Transit + 1 rental car day for the shore
- ▶ Season: May–October ideal; plan works year-round
- ▶ Languages: English · Spanish widely spoken
- ▶ Timezone: Eastern (ET/EDT)

□ Highlights at a Glance

- ▶ Manhattan skyline from the Hoboken waterfront
- ▶ Princeton University & Grounds For Sculpture
- ▶ Victorian Cape May or boardwalk Atlantic City
- ▶ World-class pizza, breweries, and farm-to-table dining
- ▶ Asbury Park music scene & Montclair art walks

02 Four-Day Itinerary

Day 01

▯ HOBOKEN · JERSEY CITY

The Skyline Arrival

▯ Skyline

▯ Walkable

▯ Pizza

Start on Washington Street for coffee and a bakery stop. Walk the Hoboken waterfront — the Manhattan skyline here is postcard-perfect. Ride the Hudson-Bergen Light Rail or take a ferry across the Hudson. Evening at Liberty State Park with the sunset behind the Statue of Liberty. Dinner: Razza for legendary pizza, or Zeppelin Hall for a lively beer garden.

Day 02

▯ PRINCETON · NEW BRUNSWICK

Ivy League & Art

▯ History

▯ Art

▯ Brewery

Morning at Princeton's campus: Nassau Hall, Palmer Square, and the Princeton University Art Museum. Lunch at a local café. Afternoon at Grounds For Sculpture — a 42-acre outdoor sculpture park. Evening in New Brunswick for breweries and Rutgers-area dining.

Day 03

▯ SHORE DAY

Coastal Escape

▯ Beach

▯ Boardwalk

▯ Seafood

Two choices: Cape May — Victorian architecture, clean beaches, lighthouse, boutique shopping, and quiet romance. Atlantic City — boardwalk energy, casinos, people-watching, and faster access from Central NJ. Both offer sunset walks and excellent seafood.

Day 04

▯ FLEXIBLE BUFFER

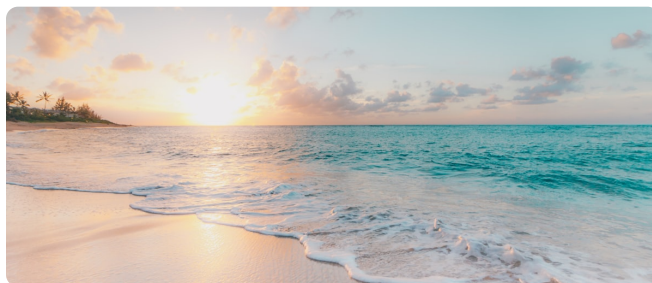

Choose Your Adventure

▯ Music

▯ Art

▯ Café

Asbury Park: iconic music history, vintage shops, the Stone Pony, and a creative boardwalk. Montclair: art museums, cafés, boutiques, and a calm suburban-vibe day. Jersey City: use it as a food-and-relaxation day before departure.
